WHAT YOU SHOULD KNOW ABOUT OUR FOOD.

We are picky about all of our ingredients. The pizza, salads - even the salad dressings - are made from scratch. When it comes to produce, we buy our vegetables and salad greens locally whenever we can. Our pizza dough is a treasured family recipe. We knead it, let it rest overnight, and hand toss for best results. The flour? It comes from our very own back yard: Power Flour from Pendleton, Oregon (more than 200 tons a year!).

A LITTLE HISTORY. Pizzicato started in Portland in 1989 - just a little "mom and pop" in a tiny location on the Sylvan Hill. The Oregonian wrote a glowing article about us, and there was no looking back. Today, we have pizzerias in most Portland neighborhoods, Hood River and Bend, as well as Washington and California. We look forward to serving you the best pizza at each and every one.
